

Work Offered Travel

Scott Andrew Martin

1968-2013

ACAS 1995

Scott Martin died suddenly from a seizure at his home on August 16, 2013.

He was born December 30, 1968, in the Kitchener/Waterloo area of Ontario, Canada. He graduated from the University of Waterloo in 1992 with a BMath in actuarial science.

Shortly after graduating, Martin left the East and headed to Canada's West Coast to work for the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia (ICBC) in Vancouver. From 1997 to 1999, he was an actuary with P&C Limited in Barbados. From 2000 to 2001, he was a senior manager with KPMG LLC in Toronto. In 2002 he joined St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company in St. Paul, Minnesota, as an assistant actuary. His last post was with Mattei Insurance Services, Inc. in Seattle, where he served as vice president and chief actuary.

An animal lover, antique collector and a Seattle Sounders soccer fan, Scott Martin had many other interests. He loved bridge, skiing, swimming, golfing, biking, music and bowling, and especially traveling. His actuarial career took him from Vancouver to Barbados, Toronto, Minneapolis/St. Paul and finally Seattle.

He is survived by his parents David and Rowena, brothers Brett and Craig, and special friend Tove. He leaves behind many family and friends who will miss him dearly.